

I understand that the FCC is attempting to ammend the current law we have implemented here in Indiana.
Just be aware that the law here as it NOW stands is really working.
My family can now sit down during the evening without having to deal with the incessent tele-marking calls.
We want it to continue to stay that way and not have to deal with the harrasement of these UNWANTED calls.

Thank You